DOWNTOWN COMMUNITY PLANNING COUNCIL
HOLDS ANNUAL ELECTION

The Downtown Community Planning Council (DCPC) will hold its election for new members on March 6 & 7, 2017.

The polls will be open from noon to 8:00 PM on Monday, March 6th and from 9:00 AM to 8:00 PM on Tuesday, March 7th. Voting will take place at Horton Plaza/Lyceum near the new Horton Plaza Park on Broadway. Voters are encouraged to walk or take the public transportation, but Horton Plaza does validate parking for 1 hour.

The DCPC serves as the official planning group for Downtown San Diego. The group is made up of 27 volunteers each elected for a two year term to represent Downtown homeowners and tenants, commercial property owners and businesses and community organizations. The group provides a means for public participation relating to the growth and development of Downtown and serves as a communications link to the Civic San Diego Board, the Planning Commission and City Council.

DCPC meets monthly to review design proposals, conditional use permits, development and loan agreements and other downtown development policies and programs such as affordable housing, parking, transportation needs, street lighting, homelessness and social issues.

There are 13 seats up for election this year:
